If installing on a JK, you may want to purchase the Mopar plate plug to cover your factory plate location from your local Jeep dealer. Mopar part# 55397112AA. Smittybilt also offers many armor options that will cover the factory license plate mounting hole, such as the XRC armor fenders or the XRC Body armor skins.

Step 1: Park vehicle on flat ground and set parking brake.

Step 2: Remove spare tire. Install base plate over lug studs on spare tire mount. Base plate will fit a variety of 5,6 and 8 lug wheels. Wheel center caps cannot be used. Remove wheel center cap if equipped and reinstall spare tire.

NOTE: Make sure you have adequate thread engagement of your lug nuts. A general rule is the amount of thread engagement must be equal to or greater than the diameter of the lug stud. DO NOT use if there is inadequate thread engagement of your lug nuts. Example: JK jeeps use a 1/2" diameter lug stud, so your lug nut must thread on to at least 1/2" of threads on your lug studs.

Step 3: Insert plate mount into base plate. Secure with clevis & cotter pin. Install wing bolt into threads and tighten to remove any play. The holes for the clevis pin can also be used with a padlock so you can lock your plate in place. Secure license plate using M6 hardware.

NOTE: The additional tabs are for mounting auxiliary lights or accessories.
